

Save money, share the news, and save even more

Share the news about CSP and other notice advertisement savings in Ontario Construction News, and you and your industry partners will each save $25.00 on your next order (in addition, of course, to the ongoing savings from when you had no choice about where to publish these mandatory notices.)

Just share this note with as many people as you wish – and invite your partners to send in this form with their order. We'll deduct $25.00 from their first invoice, and credit your account for $25.00 for each referral.

You can save at least $130 – and often much more, with each Certificate of Substantial Performance (CSP) notice published in Ontario Construction News, while complying with both Ontario Construction Act and Legislation Act (2006) legal notice publication requirements.

Just email this form with your CSP document to certificates@ontarioconstructionnews.com.
